

INDIANA ANGUS ASSOCIATION SCHOLARSHIP

The Indiana Angus Association awards (3) $1,000 scholarships each year. These scholarships can be used for higher education, either academic or vocational, at an accredited institution. High school seniors and college students under the age of 24 during the current year may apply. To be eligible for this scholarship, applicants must be a member of the American Angus Association, either junior or adult. Repeat winners of a scholarship will not be eligible if the applications total more than four. The application must be submitted on or before October 1, 2020.
